

Phillip Howell-Richardson joins Independent Mediators

Phillip Howell-Richardson has accepted an invitation from the members of Independent Mediators to join their Mediation Chambers with effect from 1st March 2010. Phillip was accredited as a mediator in 1990 and has subsequently earned a considerable reputation conducting UK and international mediations and is consistently listed by the main Legal Directories in their top rankings.

He has had extensive involvement with the development of mediation both in his capacity as Chairman of ADR Net and through his consultancy and training activities. He has been an independent mediator for 19 years and conducted in excess of 500 mediations.

Phillip has been a mediator and consultant on ADR at SJ Berwin since 2005. He is leaving with their complete support for his new life as a full time member of Independent Mediators. His areas of specialisation complement those of the other members of Independent Mediators incorporating all Commercial Disputes including: Financial, International, Insurance, Professional Negligence, Banking, Construction, Property and Employment.

Phillip is joining Independent Mediators which was the first Mediation Chambers in Europe. They are still the only group of independent mediators who have their entire practices managed exclusively by their own administration team.

Independent Mediators is comprised of a select number of top ranked, totally independent mediators Charles Dodson, Michel Kallipetis QC, Mark Lomas QC, Bill Marsh and Nicholas Pryor and was launched two and a half years ago. During that time they have been appointed in excess of 800 mediations.

To appoint Phillip or one of the other mediators or to find out details of their practice and fees please contact:

David Douglas Nicky Doble
Chief Executive Practice Manager

Tel: 0207 127 9223

Email: david.douglas@independentmediators.co.uk

Web: www.independentmediators.co.uk