

Interactive. Informative. Insightful.

Independent Mediators Seminar - Dublin

We would be delighted if you could join us for the latest in our series of Mediation Matters seminars which will be taking place in Dublin on 18 June 2019.

An opportunity to hear from mediators who have worked with parties in over 85 countries, as mediators, mediation advisers to governments and companies, and delivering mediation training. They will examine the issues, challenges and hot topics in mediation today.

Topics to include.

Getting beyond no – Breaking impasse, negotiation tactics.

Regulation – Mediation Act, Code of Conduct.

Singapore Convention –

It's impact on cross border mediation and raising the profile of mediation for cross border disputes.

The seminar will take the format of a panel led open forum. It is our aim to make the seminar as interactive and informative as possible. There will plenty of opportunity to share thoughts and for you to ask questions of the mediators.

Please email seminars@independentmediators.co.uk by Monday 13 May 2019 to register. Places are limited.

We very much hope you can join us for what should be a very lively discussion and of course for drinks afterwards!

The Independent Mediators panel...

Phillip Howell-Richardson

View CV...

Michel Kallipetis QC

View CV...

Jonathan Lloyd-Jones

View CV...

Bill Marsh

View CV...

www.independentmediators.co.uk

5.30pm - Registration.

6.00pm - Seminar followed by drinks reception.

The Merrion Hotel, Upper Merrion Street, Dublin 2, Ireland.