

Investor/State Mediation: What is really happening? Lessons and tips from the global coal-face.

In this session we will examine, via real life experience, mediating investor state disputes. Examining, exploring, sharing, busting the myths, realities and practical application.

LIDW25

During LIDW we are co-hosting this hybrid event and would be delighted if you could attend. Join us in person at King & Spalding's London office or online as we explore Investor/State Mediation.

This high-level international panel chaired by Lord Neuberger of Abbotsbury, former President of UK Supreme Court, will discuss the realities of what is actually happening on the ground in Investor/State Mediation.

Using a specific case study and other live examples, we will discuss:

- The realities of advising clients to go into IS mediations – what concerns do State clients and commercial clients express, and how are they addressed in practice?
- What actually happens in IS mediations? Process, preparation and negotiation. How does it differ from other mediations?
- Practical decision-making challenges for States in IS mediations.
- Coordinating IS mediation with IS arbitration – timing issues.
- The practical challenges for mediators mediating IS disputes.
- ICSID's institutional insights – What trends is ICSID seeing in mediation? What do the stats say?

Who should attend?

The session will be of interest to lawyers advising State and commercial parties in ISDS, mediators, arbitrators and academics, and others.

How to register

You can attend in person (places are limited so we advise early booking) or online. Click on the red 'Register now' button on the top of this page to register via the LIDW website.
